

Meeting called to order at 7:00

- New members!
 - Kingsley Toby: Came from Culver City, CA four months ago. Brews on an electric brew system.
 - Quentin Hodgson: From West LA, member of Maltose Falcons. Likes brewing English ales.
 - Christopher Niggel: He's back! (After crashing his mountain bike and breaking his hand.)
- New letter going out to people who are up for renewal, hoping to help retention.
- Treasurer's report:
 - Ended year with a little over $2,000.
 - Mike waived COHO's debt for the Grainfather donated to retirement home.
 - New budget: No Spring Fling, no holiday party, camping trip is ON for now (hoping to have vaccinations by summer).
- Brooks gave a rundown of club perks for new members.
- Remington reports that there are no group brews on the horizon for now (barrel project aside).
 - We currently have over 60 gallons committed.
 - If members are brewing and want company, they can reach out to the board members to advertise.
 - Tom requests more people do so!
- Educational speakers:
 - Brooks is still looking for volunteers. Will try to have one for the next meeting.
- Campout update from Kevin:
 - It's happening! Same campground as previous years (Big River Campground, south of Sunriver), July 16-18.
 - 2 sites; 10 people per site, 6 vehicles per site
 - This means we can have 20 people total, club members first
 - Event registration likely to be opened in June
- Birthdays this month: Brandon! He gets nothing. (Also Karen.)
- Tom suggests moving Spring Fling to the fall.
- Club competition:
 - Q1 entries due Feb 6.
 - Q2 is Amber Bitter European Beer.
 - Please enter!
- Tom suggests looking around for cheaper web hosting solutions.
 - Remington says there are definitely better solutions, but transferring everything over will be a PITA and it may not be worth the effort.
 - Nevertheless, we'll be on the lookout.
- Some talk w/ Tom and Brooks re: ways to increase engagement in the age of Zoom meetings.
 - Spencer suggests more educational talks with local brewers.

- Quentin says Maltose Falcons put together sampler packs with local breweries and talking to the brewer via Zoom while trying them.
- Nancy had a similar experience with her club in Humboldt.
- Michael suggests getting local breweries to also put COHO advertisements up on their notice boards.
- Kingsley says Pacific Gravity did the same.

Meeting adjourned at 8:04.
